

PIDDINGTON ROMAN VILLA EXCAVATION HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT

- It is the duty of all personnel, under the Health & Safety at Work Act 1974, to take reasonable care for the health and safety of him /herself and other persons who may be affected by their actions.

- The Upper Nene Archaeological Society recognises its responsibilities:
  - To provide and maintain safe and healthy working conditions;
  - To provide necessary information, instructions, training and equipment to enable participants to perform their work safely;
  - To take into account all statutory requirements for health and safety.

- Individual responsibilities:
  - To comply with the Health & Safety Policy issued by the Trustees, contained in the welcome pack;
  - To comply with local safety instructions and directions issued by the Excavation Directors, Supervisors, Site Manager, or anyone else to whom the Directors have delegated supervisory duties, in respect to:
    - Appropriate clothing, footwear, personal protective equipment (ppe);
    - Responsible use of tools and equipment;
    - Compliance with the Society's 'zero tolerance' of possession or use of illegal substances.